Event Information

Second Annual American Indian Music Fest Casa Grande Ruins National Monument January 30 & 31, 2010

Come join this festive event celebrating the connection and continuity of prehistoric and current American Indian cultures through concert and demonstration. Experience a blend of prehistoric and modern Native American instrumentation, music and dance. Observe American Indian crafters and artisans engaged in authentic production of traditional and contemporary cultural items. Shop the wide selection of flutes and other musical instruments, silver, beaded and shell jewelry, wood carvings, gourd art, basketry and pottery. Taste authentic American Indian foods, and dance to the rhythms of the past and the present.

Please note that we will be updating our website (www.nps.gov/cagr) on an on-going basis up to the time of the event so please check it regularly.
